

Crossing the Blades

Running Wild

Eternal stories of loyalty and trust
Victorious glory or going for bust
Adventurous stories of passion and lust
We're never sorry for shagging or thrust

Heart is on flames, right in the fight
Our passion to tame, right in the strike, strike

Crossing the blades, flashing the steel
We will ride and united we stand
Flashing the blades, crossing the steel
One for all and all for one in the end
Whoa, yeah

Riding the dark night, resisting the rain
Hot is the fight, cold is the pain
We will be all right, we're true in the game
Hard is the strike, opponents too tame

Heart is on flames, right in the fight
Our passion to tame, right in the strike, strike

Crossing the blades, flashing the steel
We will ride and united we stand
Flashing the blades, crossing the steel
One for all and all for one in the end

Heart is on flames, right in the fight
Our passion to tame, right in the strike, strike

Crossing the blades, flashing the steel
We will ride and united we stand
Flashing the blades, crossing the steel
One for all and all for one in the end
