

Stargazed

Running Wild

Daylight is fading, the sky is turning red
Universal darkness, stars dancing on your bed
Dark blue horizon and stars are shining bright
Unrest is rising with the falling of the night

Stargazed, under control
Stargazed, perceiving your soul

Wide-awake but tired, afraid to close your eyes
You're feeling shadowed by angels in disguise
Dark blue horizon and stars are shining bright
Unrest is rising with the falling of the night

Stargazed, under control
Stargazed, perceiving your soul

Seeing right inside you, they know you, oh, so well
On higher orders, see they don't belong to hell
Dark blue horizon and stars are shining bright
Unrest is rising with the falling of the night

Stargazed, under control
Stargazed, perceiving your soul
Stargazed, under control
Stargazed, perceiving your soul
