

Wings of Fire

Running Wild

They wanna rule the world
Believe in ancient lies
They're hanging on their words
The devil in disguise

Unleashed insanity
They ignore everything that's true
The voice of destiny (or the devil)
So long, so long

The fallen angel's on
They become puppets on a string
They still sing his song
Caught in a poisoned swing

Unleashed insanity
They ignore everything that's true
The voice of destiny (or the devil)
So long, so long

Riding on wings of fire
They're heading straight right for the sun
Riding on wings of fire
Until all madness come undone

Betrayed in the end
There is a wrong or right!
Believe in dark world's send
They are falling off the light

Unleashed insanity
They ignore everything that's true
The voice of destiny (or the devil)
So long, so long

Riding on wings of fire
They're heading straight right for the sun
Riding on wings of fire
Until all madness come undone

Riding on wings of fire
They're heading straight right for the sun
Riding on wings of fire
Until all madness come undone

Your wings of fire lead you straight to hell!
