

Fan On

Runnner

Fan on in your room
Daylight seeping through
Window shifting two blues
Morning separate
Pushed down making space
Can't sleep so I'm waiting

I can't guess what's on your mind
Feel so dumb for even trying

And I can't explain it now
Why my head's so fucking loud
Gave up on knowing why
Sitting silent passing time
