

Panorama

Runner

It's so far and so late and so shallow and okay
When it's warm enough to drive with all the windows down
But there's nothing else here keeping me around
And so I follow in hollow feet
For vacant promises and ragged sleep
Cause I'm the one who never seems to know
That panorama hangs but you can't go