

Clapback

RuPaul

We clap back
When the haters attack
Hey, ladies!

Clap back, get your girls
Side by side, don't you hold it in
Clap back, speak your mind
Say it twice so they don't forget
Clap back, when they talk to you like that
Don't just sit and take it, just get right up in their face and
Clap back, uh, uh
Clap back, uh, woo

Girl, it's me, Jujubee
Your best friend until you act whack
Fresh and sweet, I'm the queen
Come out your mouth and I'll attack
Try to keep it cute, but it's true
I'm the queen who will clap back
Bitches wanna talk about me? Alright
I got my girls with me tonight

Don't think you can
Say that crazy shit to me
You know I'll defend-ly

Clap back, get your girls
Side by side, don't you hold it in
Clap back, speak your mind
Say it twice so they don't forget
Clap back, when they talk to you like that
Don't just sit and take it, just get right up in their face and
Clap back, uh, uh
Clap back, uh, woo

Makin' haters eat it like "time for dinner"
Mad 'cause your man wants an All Stars winner
The Jew you passed over is the chosen lady
Shvitzing on a track with Juju and Shea-dy
Huh? Where are the jokes?
The joke is that you coming for my girls when you broke
To all the fans who love us, you're what we live for
See you on the clap back world tour

Don't think you can
Say that crazy shit to me
You know I'll defend-ly

Side by side, don't you hold it in
Clap back, speak your mind
Say it twice so they don't forget
Clap back, when they talk to you like that
Clap back, uh, uh

Better be careful how you talk to me
There's no mistaking that I'm the queen
Fall in line, you don't want me to come for you
Ask your homegirl 'cause she got dragged too
Trolling on me? Better back down
Want the truth? You better sit down
Give the clap back heard across the world
Need a good reading, then I'm your girl

Don't think you can

Clap back, speak your mind
Say it twice so they don't forget
Clap back, when they talk to you like that
Clap back, uh, uh

We clap back
Ladies, ladies, ladies
Ladies, ladies, ladies
Ladies, ladies, ladies
Ladies, ladies

Clap back, get your girls
Side by side, don't you hold it in
Clap back, speak your mind
Say it twice so they don't forget
Clap back, when they talk to you like that
Clap back, uh, uh

Say what?
Clap back
