RuPaul

Queens
Queens

A mighty hoe
She got the dough
From coast to coast, around the globe
She rock the flow, another show
She got the most
She ready to go
(Is she a show or no show?)
You better let a bitch know
(Is she a show or no show?)
You better let a bitch know
(Is she a show or no show?)
You better let a bitch know
(Is she a show or no show?)
You better let a bitch-

On a plane from Berlin to Tokyo, Mexico, San Francisco
Tearing up the towns where they told her not to go
Givin' them life, so right from head to toe
Bringin' that heat when it's 26 below
Blowin' up TV and the radio
Next level vibes, so fly, you can't ignore
So sky-high 'cause she's so super dope
Intergalactic, Earth to Pluto
Superstar boss all through the cosmos
Mashin' you like an Idaho Potato
Whippin' you up like a space tornado

Queens (they're everywhere, everywhere, everywhere)
Ooh, queens (they're everywhere, everywhere, everywhere)
Queens (they're everywhere, everywhere, everywhere)
Ooh, queens (they're everywhere)

Since long ago, she got the glow
She overflow, in stereo
Wherever you go, look out below
She 'bout to blow
And now you know
Domo arigato
Sayonara prego
Adiós muchachos
Be gone

Adiós muchachos
Be gone
