

Counting My Blessings

Counting my blessings
Counting my blessings

I have been through the hills and valleys
I've seen so many highs and lows
Nothing good in life comes easy
You don't even know, oh, oh

I've been through the sun and rain
I've seen so much joy and pain
Everyday I try to remain
Thankful and humble
So if I seem out of place
Getting on and pelting waist
Just leave me alone
Alone
Alone
Alone
Alone
Alone

'Cause I can jump up if I want to
Can whine up if I want to
You don't know what I've been through
I'm counting my blessings
I can wuk up if I want to
Can pump up if I want to
You don't know what I've been through
Counting my blessings

Counting my blessings, yeah, yeah, yeah
Blessings, yeah, yeah
Counting my blessings, yeah, yeah, yeah
Blessings, yeah, yeah
I'm counting my blessings

Blessings
Counting my blessings
Blessings
I'm counting my blessings
Counting my blessings
Counting my blessings
Counting my blessings

Wow, I used to have so many around me
Now I'm like "Where did they go?" Oh, oh
I still got my day ones so I don't worry
And they already know
My day ones know

I've been through the sun and rain
I've seen so much joy and pain
Thankful and humble
So if I seem out of place

Just leave me alone
Alone
Alone
Alone
Alone
Alone

'Cause I can jump up if I want to
I'm counting my blessings
I can wuk up if I want to
Counting my blessings

Counting my blessings, yeah, yeah, yeah
Blessings, yeah, yeah
Counting my blessings, yeah, yeah, yeah
Blessings, yeah, yeah
I'm counting my blessings

Blessings
Counting my blessings
Blessings
I'm counting my blessings
Blessings
Counting my blessings
Blessings

'Cause I can jump up if I want to
You don't know what I've been through
I'm counting my blessings
I can wuk up if I want to
Can pump up if I want to
You don't know what I've been through
Counting my blessings

Counting my blessings, yeah, yeah, yeah
Blessings, yeah, yeah
Counting my blessings, yeah, yeah, yeah
Blessings, yeah, yeah
I'm counting my blessings

Blessings
Counting my blessings
Blessings
I'm counting my blessings
Blessings
Counting my blessings
