Somethings off with the way that you're moving
Something ain't computing
Your vibe and your energy off
And it seems like your router keeps re-routing
Something about the way that you're dealing
I just can't fight this feeling
All of the signs and the omens telling me
Father show me the meaning

Father protect and guide me on the way
Help me accept the things I cannot change
All the trials and crosses I am yet to face

Sometimes I can't tell friend from enemy
Fake hug fake pound fake love fake energy
Wish me success but warn see the end of me

All of a sudden you turn off location
Just so with no explanation
Don't worry bout it cause your actions done tell your destination
Your spirits on a low vibration
Eyes in hibernation
