

Your Will Be Done

Rush Of Fools

This place is broken
So far from where it began
Nothing like Heaven
Right now I don't understand
How You are working
I know I'll see in the end
For now I'm trusting
Only as much as I can
My heart is screaming out

Your will be done
Your kingdom come
My hope is in You
Lord, don't delay
Come have Your way
My hope is in You

Your thoughts are higher
Than the heavens above
You hold the power
But You don't hold back Your love
From where I'm standing
I only see it in part
Just how You're moving
Help me believe that You are
My heart is screaming out

What was broken
Will be whole again
And all will be made new
