

Adventure

Russ

What you gonna do when it doesn't work out how you thought it would? (Whoa-oh-oh)

Feels unfair and you wanna turn around, but it's for your own good
I can lose it all, just as long as I don't ever lose my faith (Whoa-oh-oh)
I've never been here, but that makes it new, doesn't mean it's strange

I'm not lost, I'm on an adventure
I'm just on a quest for my treasure
Cross any ocean, walk any desert
(Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Might fall apart, just pull it together
Think about how far you've come, just remember
You're not lost, you're on an adventure
(Yeah)

Gotta trust the universe, I'm tempted
Mama said that light is what I'm wrapped in (Wrapped in)
I know if it happens then it's supposed to (Oh, oh-oh)

Yeah, yeah
When I was at my lowest, had to hold my head the highest Reconnect with silence, otherwise it's hard to hear the guidance (Hear the guidance)
Thinkin' that I got a broken version of success
Until I realized this is the version that I'm supposed to get
I see the way the roads connect if you just keep on drivin'
Tried to fight the moment, thought the stars need realignin'
Told my mama that I quit
Told my friends that when I get back from Brazil that this is it
Don't nobody hit my phone, I was disgusted with God
Tried to discuss it with God
This ain't how it's supposed to go, I've had enough of this, God
But then I remember where I started from Realized I'm far from there and I'm far from done (True)

What you gonna do when it doesn't work out how you thought it would? (Whoa-oh-oh)

Feels unfair and you wanna turn around, but it's for your own good
I can lose it all, just as long as I don't ever lose my faith (Whoa-oh-oh)
I've never been here, but that makes it new, doesn't mean it's strange

I'm not lost, I'm on an adventure
I'm just on a quest for my treasure
Cross any ocean, walk any desert
(Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh)
Might fall apart, just pull it together
Think about how far you've come, just remember
You're not lost, I'm on an adventure
(Yeah)

I'm just tryna have faith in what I can't see
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
But if it's in my mind's eye, then I believe
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Head to the sky and all I needed
Is one sign
'Cause I still believe that behind the clouds

Is the sunshine

(Yeah)

For a second lost my sanity

Took it out on everyone, includin' friends and family

The universe is handin' me a reward in disguise of a detour

Forcin' me to believe more, gratitude helped me restore my faith

I could've quit

Glad I didn't

Not been done

I'm not finished

I feel amazin'

I feel amazin'

Do I really know?
