Russ

Yeah, everybody needs to get away

No stress, wake up with no cameras on
Livin' in the amazon
Knowing that I can't be wrong
Feelin' so blessed
Walkin' through this wonderland
Give a look to to Alice just enough for her to understand
That we should go sex

But then it's back to traveling, all around utopia
Where phobias' don't have a friend
Yes I am imagining, I prefer it this way
Lost enough to love in my reality it was misplaced, no mistake
I escaped, all the way to Shangri-La, lounging in my palace
Feeling like I'm Genghis Khan, scotch is in my chalice
Hummingbirds play my song
Clouds are my mattress
No more feeling anxious, I'm having

No stress, wake up with no cameras on
Livin' in the amazon
Knowing that I can't be wrong
Feelin' so blessed
Walkin' through this wonderland
Give a look to to Alice just enough for her to understand
That we should go sex

Yeah
I'm in this golden state of mind
In this golden place of mine
Where I've chosen ways to find my euphoria
This is story of crossing over to the other side where the glory's from Everything is ideal
Goddesses wear nothing but some high heels
You feeling wrong, they cook the right meal and serve you
And I'm not talking 'bout food
I'm talking 'bout the lips down low, talking rude
As I'm having

No stress, wake up with no cameras on
Livin' in the amazon
Knowing that I can't be wrong
Feelin' so blessed
Walkin' through this wonderland
Give a look to to Alice just enough for her to understand
That we should go sex

Yeah
I'm swinging from the vine, sipping wine, hypnotized
By the chimes of my melody's and rhymes
Smoking paradise
Nothing else to do but think and cherish life
And stare right in each eye
And see why I'm living
Access to this world is by taking, it wasn't given
I'm tripping of fishing and catching what I've been missing

So this is where I'm gonna stay
In my own mind, wouldn't have it any other way 'cause

No stress, wake up with no cameras on
Livin' in the amazon
Knowing that I can't be wrong
Feelin' so blessed
Walkin' through this wonderland
Give a look to to Alice just enough for her to understand
That we should go sex

We should go sex
We should go sex
All day and all night
Yeah, Limbo
