

Ecstasy (Freestyle)

Russ

Now the Conductor, maestro

Yeah

Progress is my ecstasy I'm high as hell

Got so many songs could make albums for ages like Adele

Alive and well, I'm who the waiters bring the check to

But it's been like eight years since I checked prices on the menu

I'm feeling like Deku

I became my hero

GCDS denims with Mihara Yasuhiro

Fourteen thinking I was making heat like Tyler Herro

People tryna poke holes in my come-up 'cause I'm making zeros

South of France my mom is lit

The line between ambition and being content is blurred like Robin Thicke

Living out my fantasy remember watching Rob & Big

Factor in: I'm talking shit

Course I'm causing drama now

Chanel bag for my momma now

Walking round Soho, they like 'Yo, bro can we snap a flick?'

There's really a wolf, sold out shows in Minneapolis

Any rapper list, it's null and void if I'm not on it

Don Angie's fully booked but I pull strings like Philharmonic

Lasagna for two please, these aren't just blue jeans

These Armani, these ain't Gucci, but they cost me two G's

Catch me in the movies, I just did some shit with Shyamalan

When they try and cheat the score, I got to trust the hand of God

Christian Dior sandals on, they comfy as hell

Shopping spree in Paris after French toast at Sadelle's

But late nights in New York we order Empanada Mama

Conductor sent the beat, I sent it back like Wembanyama

I text Giana, telling her tuition has been handled

My parent's debt is canceled, my role in the fam dismantled

I stepped into it nobley

Here's a toast to me

Everything changed in the spur of the moment like Ginobili

It's been an adjustment, but I power forward like Tim Duncan

Drake said it best I think I like who I'm becoming

Progress is my ecstasy I'm high as hell

Got so many songs could make albums for ages like Adele

Alive and well, I'm who the waiters bring the check to

But it's been like eight years since I checked prices on the menu

For real, For real

Conductor we have a problem
