

Embrace

Russ

Always pushed you away, oh
But it's you that keeps me sane, oh
Know that I'll be okay
I embrace you knowing you the thing that's gettin' me through

Yeah, this heated floor is made out of my lost marbles
Heard I'm getting M's, it's crazy we shopped at Marshall's
I don't like Marvel movies but, shit, it's cool
'Cause my self doubt drowned, it's dead, I'm in my pool
Tryna get tan, I got my feet up like a keg stand
My mom's wrist looks like a festival, it's 10 bands
I'm Rembrandt the way I used to paint the sky with the Dutch smoke
I smelled like 20 bucks and Dove soap
Now I smell like 7-million-dollar wires
Got so many voices in my head, could start a choir
Workin' on accepting the coexistence of good and bad
If I can see the good in me, then I can see the good in Dad
Me and my brother goin' through it, I'm hurtin'
It's hard to empathize and separate behavior from person
So I shame him like my dad did Tryna celebrate accomplishments while dealing with some bullshit is t he average day of mine
But I'm wasting time tryna stop the shit
'Cause longing for a life without suffering is what causes it
So I acknowledge all of it inside the studio
From losing a best friend to landing a lead movie role
The good, bad, and in between, cheers to all three
They taught me more than any teachers ever taught me
Valdosta state, then a couple months at Kennesaw
I dipped, I live a sweet life, I went and found my Brenda Song
We out in London with Ed Sheeran at Gymkhana
My self-belief's been absolute I used to drink vodka
I'm pissed I gotta deal with family drama constantly
Business partners fucking up, my girl wants to talk to me
She said that I was bein' rude, I said, "Probably"
I'm goin' through a lot, that's no excuse, but I'm honestly
Suffocating, spiraling, tryna fix it all
But maybe peace of mind is when you don't resist at all

Always pushed you away, oh
But it's you that keeps me sane, oh
Know that I'll be okay
I embrace you knowing you the thing that's gettin' me through
Always pushed you away, oh
But it's you that keeps me sane, oh
Know that I'll be okay
I embrace you knowing you the thing that's gettin' me through
