

Golden

Russ

Yeah, CHOMP 2, Boi-1da
I had to give you at least one
At least one of these one while I'm still lettin' y'all know
Lotta jewelry 'round the world, hahaha
1da, let me talk to them real quick, yeah

When you new and make bread, everybody is toastin' (Come on)
They proud that they know you, they be braggin' and boastin'
Then they all flip, everybody just dips
'Cause they only love you when everything is golden
When you new and make bread everybody is toastin'
They proud that they know you, they be braggin' and boastin'
Then they all flip, everybody just dips
'Cause they only love you when everything is golden

1da send the film, I just made eight Ms
This industry is riddled with fickle bitches and fake friends
They show it from the start, they shadowing the charts
They follow when you lit but disappear when it gets dark
That's why I just play my part when I leave the booth
Turn to Tony Stark, genius in a suit
People who lost faith in God look at me and say, "Jesus who?"
I restored hurdling the reward worship
And the points are fabricated, they be scoreboard purchasin'
Integrity is intact
I told you to be yourself, got your identity back
This is legacy rap
This is still makin' money at seventy rap, this is equity rap
And regardless how they dissin' me, when it's all said and done
I'm on the right side of the history, victory's never won
By somebody who cannot endure pain
Real situations always expose the fakes, come on

When you new and make bread, everybody is toastin'
They proud that they know you, they be braggin' and boastin'
Then they all flip, everybody just dips
'Cause they only love you when everything is golden
When you new and make bread everybody is toastin'

Then they all flip, everybody just dips
'Cause they only love you when everything is golden

Flick it up, I'm snappin', when I'm winnin', they be askin'
'Bout the bitches that I'm smashin', if I wish it, make it happenin'
Now I'm out here goin' platinum, mama Bentley gettin' wrapped in Something matte and I'm the captain of the rappin', labels baskin'
In the light, you find your passion when you find enthusiasm
Blew a million on my fashion, blew a million on my fashion
Snuck inside the game and snatched it, climbing mountains, Appalachian
Punked a couple rapper asses tryna judge me for reactions
That's the ones who made the captions, I'm just Staples Center rappin'
Go ask, float your boys for cash, when people mad, they call it braggin'
They just mad that life is passin' them all up while I keep tappin'
Models that they keep on taggin' on a screen I'm really crackin'
'Cause my life's what I imagined, I'm the label, I'm the back in People tryna circle back in, act like that I shouldn't slap 'em
I been workin' on compassion, I been less and less reactive

Melody seem like distractions when they really aren't rappin', yeah, yeah

When you new and make bread, everybody is toastin'
They proud that they know you, they be braggin' and boastin'
Then they all flip, everybody just dips
'Cause they only love you when everything is golden
When you new and make bread everybody is toastin'
