

How'd You Do It

Russ

Tell me how'd you do it, oh
For me
For me
If I could ask you anything
Anything
Oh

Tell me how'd you do it, oh
For me
For me
If I could ask you anything
Anything
Oh

Your world exploded, how'd you not implode?
How'd you effortlessly juggle every single role?
You were only twenty-three, that's when most people leave
You stayed behind to give your family the support that they need
That was selfless
How'd do you it with no help while feeling helpless?
How'd you stick to the plan?
People who didn't lift a finger, how'd you give 'em a hand?
How'd you keep on making hits while shit was hittin' the fan?
You stood your ground, you didn't flee, it was 2016
You navigated the business without a business degree
Didn't have a random child or get hooked on drugs
People tried to pull you down but you just pushed on, huh
I'm proud of you
It's clearer now that I'm through it
If I saw you right now, I would ask how'd you do it
You did the right thing
It's clearer now that I'm through it
If I saw you right now, I would ask how'd you do it, for real

Tell me how'd you do it, oh
For me
For me
If I could ask you anything
Anything
Oh

You bought Dad a house and finally understand his perspective
How'd you reconcile with him and let go of resentment?
How'd you finally realize that Mom's emotions aren't yours?
How'd you build a life that doesn't just revolve around tours?
You're authentically yourself, man, I'm dying to be
You found solace in the spotlight that was blinding to me
You got a girlfriend and two dogs, how'd you find someone you trust?
How'd you build a connection with her that's deeper than lust?
You got fit, how the fuck did you cut back on the liquor?
All your interviews are grounded, you don't come off so bitter
You finally got a therapist to help you carry your struggles
I dug a hole, you got us out and then you buried the shovel
How'd you even find the courage to acknowledge it?
How'd you find humility without losing your confidence?
I'm proud of you
I see it clearer than where you sit

If I could ask you anything, I'd ask you how'd you do it, for real (Damn)

Tell me how'd you do it, oh
For me
For me
If I could ask you anything
Anything
Oh

Tell me how'd you do it, oh
For me
For me
If I could ask you anything
Anything
Oh
