

You are my world, I'm goin' crazy
Cause you make me feel like my feelings ain't even for real
But you are my girl, that's why I'm crazy
That's why I feel like there's nobody in the world but you

Yeah, keep a couple hoes just to fill the void
Ya'll drop shipping?, don't make a sound, I'm out here makin' noise
List of accomplishments longer than your excuses
Everybody has a choice: live neutral or make a movement
Used to only see money with Washington's face on it
Now I'm doing the show out in Washington state on 'em
I used to love Keyanna 'til she show me all her colors
I wrote this hook before I wrote this verse
Fuck that motherfucker

You are my world, I'm goin' crazy
Cause you make me feel like my feelings ain't even for real
But you are my girl, that's why I'm crazy
That's why I feel like there's nobody in the world but you

Yeah, wanderin' who or where and why and hows of you
I was bout to cop that place in New York house in you?
But I found the truth, you went and fucked that corny rapper
You ain't use no logic
I'm the one
You realized after

Lacking guidance parents dipped on you, damn they left a mark
You've been bullshitting for so long, your life ain't really start
I used to love Keyanna 'til she show me all her colors
I wrote this hook before I wrote this verse
Fuck that motherfucker

You are my world, I'm goin' crazy
Cause you make me feel like my feelings ain't even for real
But you are my girl, that's why I'm crazy
That's why I feel like there's nobody in the world but you

Yeah, yo mom hit me up, I'm glad to see you talk to her
But she's cuffed to false sense of a reality of her daughter
I'm sorry missus officer, there's a lot of words that I could say
Fuck it if you wanna go there
Then I go down and press this send
For my chest, to my brain, to my words, to your soul
So this gonna fuck you up
Your daughter doesn't fit your mode
I used to love your daughter 'til she show me all her colors
I wrote this hook before I wrote this verse
Fuck that motherfucker

You are my world, I'm goin' crazy
Cause you make me feel like my feelings ain't even for real
But you are my girl, that's why I'm crazy
That's why I feel like there's nobody in the world but you
