

Legend Freestyle

Russ

A-Aye, put that away, let's go to the movies

Milan started a coffee brand
We gettin' money out in Mexico, we call that mariachi bands
Fans surround the van and bang on glass like hockey fans
They say that I'm a legend, I play it cool, but shit, I probably am

I used to stranglehold my plans, I left no room for God
I make that cat jump when she sees me like she got Puma's on
If you do me wrong, I'm in an unforgiving mood
I make the music that my younger self would love to listen to

Permission to be myself, but I'm not asking no more
I starved myself of self love but I'm not fasting no more
Tell myself that I'm okay, I'm just workin on believing it
I see all the love and praise, I'm workin' on receiving it
My happiness is buried deep, I'm workin' on retrieving it
'Cause thinkin' that I'm great is vastly different than just being it

Pacin' 'round my house at 4 a.m., I'm restless
Drinking water, but the thirst I have for life is quenchless
I'm not impressed with editors of Rolling Stone or GQ
Y'all egos crazy if you think that artists actually need you

Y'all don't move the needle, the only ones who care are other writers
Talkin' crazy 'bout my work but any day you could be fired
Where the fuck are y'all's credentials? What the fuck have you written
I wrote a New York Times bestseller, y'all's time is just tickin

It's a different game, adapt just like the rest of us
Critics can't take criticism but be the first ones disrespecting us
Pussies
Cosplaying as God like you got power, power
My money long, I could count this shit for hours, hours
Cosplaying as God like you got power, power
My money long, I could count this shit for hours, hours

Milan started a coffee brand
We gettin' money out in Mexico off music, so we call that mariachi bands
Fans surround the van and bang on glass, they like hockey fans
Say that I'm a legend, I play it cool, but shit, I probably am

Shit, I probably am
Yeah
One take
Conductor, appreciate you
