

Lucky

Russ

I wanna spend all my minutes on you
I wanna go to the top of the moon
I wanna take every second I can
Showing you gently just how lucky I am

I am, I am, I am, I am, I am lucky
I am, I am, I am, I am, I am lucky

I don't care about what they be saying, saying
They don't even know what they be saying, saying (yeah)

Now we gotta watch, now we gotta move
Actually, we don't, we can just cruise
Up to Ravello, overlooking the Amalfi
Champagne toasting, feeling real bossy
Spend a couple days then I call Phillip
That's my pilot, wait for him to fill up the jet
Then we jet to the Santorini sunset
Then Spain, we ain't even done yet

I wanna spend all my minutes on you
I wanna go to the top of the room
I wanna take every second I can
Showing you gently just how lucky I am

I am, I am, I am, I am, I am lucky
I am, I am, I am, I am, I am lucky

Maybe Mexico, Switzerland with snow
Maybe we should go right now
Desert with the stars, I'll take you to Mars
Maybe we should go right now
Let's go to Rome, maybe let's just stay home
Baby, except we popping and everyone knows
Pictures in France, then we fly to Japan
Baby, except we popping and everyone knows

I wanna spend all my minutes on you
I wanna go to the top of the moon
I wanna take every second I can
Showing you gently just how lucky I am

I am, I am, I am, I am, I am lucky
I am, I am, I am, I am, I am lucky
