Russ

How'd it go so wrong
This ain't the best you
You've been so wrong since I met you
How'd it get so wrong
This ain't the best you
It's been so wrong since I met you

You came into a fixed world, in a broken home
You lack guidance, so you feeling so alone
Cause out the womb you had no room to excel
Feelin' like a demon seed so what's next, hell
Or better yet jail
And it's hard when its predetermined that you shouldn't prevail
So you throw on some 2Pac
Light a pair of L's
Crack a pair of bottles until you just parasail
Away from the truth, straight towards the lies
Go on hang a noose on yo life 'till you die
That's what you doing

How'd it go so wrong
This ain't the best you
You've been so wrong since I met you
How'd it get so wrong
This ain't the best you
It's been so wrong since I met you

I tried to take you to a world that was different than yours
I opened opportunity you should have opened the door
And once I drew the line
I had you askin' who am I?
Yeah, I got the password
Y'all frontin' like this world ain't fucking backwards
These rappers need their daddies
Hoes need their daddies
That's why they mix and mingle and get along
But y'all can pass me with that bullshit
You tryin' to fill this void inside a bottle
This void inside a blunt
This void inside a model
But you're daddy's what you want
But you looking in the wrong place
You're idolizing lies
So you're looking in the wrong face
And you do it all the time
What I'm tryin' to say

How'd it go so wrong
This ain't the best you
You've been so wrong since I met you
How'd it get so wrong
This ain't the best you
It's been so wrong since I met you

Y'all need to look within
