

I wanna feel the thrill, just for now
Nothing to bigger deal, cause it falls down
Harder the bigger it gets
Caught up in the shape of your silhouette
Want a little more than just sex
Hold me still, just thought I'd keep it real

Yeah, we take a shot of 1942
That's not intoxicating as a single drop of you
I'm on top of you, too sentimental
I'm a gentleman but I know when to not be gentle
I support you, let me lift up your dress
You like doggy I'm behind you girl 100%
Was such a beautiful mess
No need to clean up, I got your feet up
You were starving me for months, it's a feast when we meet up
Jesus, the way you worship me got me convertin' (true)
Open up your legs, close the curtains
Don't let the black suburban outside kill the romance
Strippin' in the bedroom, why we tryin' to slow dance (why)
No chance, we catching feelings, you come through the gate
Fuckin' on my deck, love is blind, my neighbours ain't
Best pussy is the newest, you were at the top of my to-do list
Now I'm wanting more girl, the truth is

I wanna feel the thrill, just for now
Nothing to bigger deal, cause it falls down
Harder the bigger it gets
Caught up in the shape of your silhouette
Want a little more than just sex
Hold me still, just thought I'd keep it real

Run it back
I can't lie I think I fell in love with that I can't see me ever being done with that
If I run away, you know I'm coming back, I swear
It's time I be honest with how I'm feeling
We lookin' up at the ceiling, there's gotta be something real
In this relationship, yeah
Hope you take the truth like how you take this dick
Let me just say this

I wanna feel the thrill, just for now
Nothing to bigger deal, cause it falls down
Harder the bigger it gets
Caught up in the shape of your silhouette
Want a little more than just sex
Hold me still, just thought I'd keep it
