

Right Now

Russ

Got so late so soon
You were just twenty-two
Tryna figure out what you were gon' do
It's December when it was just June

You're so consumed with what you haven't done
Your to-do list badgers you like UW Madison
Got you tryna slap someone, got you so distracted from The fact that you got bread, they ask for time, but all you have is crumbs
Burying your problems makes your anger bloom
Not tryna rock the boat, I'm here to anchor you
Oh, I'm tryna tell you that

I'm right here right now
No one else around
Look at me just once, I see
There's something on your mind
Your mind right now, right now

Yeah, you thought adulting would be fun and easy
30k in debt from chasing dreams, of course you're fucking sleepy
Overwhelmed, you rollin' weed, a temporary fix
You need capital to beat the storm like January sixth
Now you doin' shit that isn't you, but you want comfy livin'
You don't mind the bags under your eyes if they got money in them
In your twenties slippin', tryna hold on tight
It happens over time, not overnight, till then

I'm right here right now
No one else around
Look at me just once, I see
There's something on your mind
Your mind right now, right now
