

Set Me Free

Russ

Yeah

I'm tryna figure out if I'm better off alone
What seems so right just feels so wrong
I wake up in the morning and I feel it in my bones
My mind's so gone but I gotta hang on

All I know is liquor, random girls and crossing fingers
Summer of my final teens, LA dreams, Atlanta strippers
City lights and bedroom walls
Can't you see I'm just a drifter?
Double lives I've been involved in Changing lanes without my finger
Fuck it man, I'm swerving, swerving (Swerving)

Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now

Yeah, I can't lie, I feel alone
Unsettled at the core
I guess moving schools and switching states
Starts to affect you more
After you get slight older
You realize that your circle consists of people you hardly know
That shit is universal
Like every time you show up
You're feeling like the new guy
Never thought you'd roll up, now you're getting too high
It's kinda crazy, don't you think?
Faces change with every blink
Chameleons chasing after millions
Monday green, Tuesday pink
So you should get a glimpse
Take a picture while you still can
My ex hated Jack and coke
But now she blows Jill's man
I used to have a real plan
But that can make you lose it (Why?)
So I do is keep the faith
Keep making this music motherfuckers
Yeah (Yeah)

Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now

Yeah

I'm tryna figure out if I'm better off alone
I wake up in the morning and I feel it in my bones
My mind's so gone but I gotta hang on

Feeling like I need it all
I know I need it now
I'm just steady moving up
No more looking down
Feeling like I need it all
I know I need it now
No more looking down

Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
Somebody set me free
I will do anything for you
I need it more than ever
Right now
