

Skyline

Russ

You want my time but know all I got is money
I've got a question for you, have you got anything for me?
You want my time but know all I got is money
I've got a question for you, have you got anything for me?

You blow my phone and I don't know why
Don't need a reason, watch the smoke go by
I hear you calling but my calling is a calling away
So, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling away
I'm all alone and yes I don't know why
Don't need a reason, watch the smoke go by
I hear you calling but my calling is a calling away
So, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling away

Yeah, I'm just blowing smoke into the skyline
Hoping that my words will make you float into my timeline
'Cause if I find time I'ma go and scoop you
But you in my world 'cause you my girl and you my future, oh
But I forgot (What?)
I'm way too fucking busy making beats and smoking weed and getting head around the city so
I need like 50 hoes to service me and get me clothes
And [?] me when that love is low
Hate is high so let me go
I need a moment to myself to get my thoughts together
'Cause we were playing games
Now look at how we lost together (Damn)
We lost forever but I got today (Uh)
So why not smoke a blunt and make beat and float away
Float away, okay
A temporary fix (Yep)
Me, myself and I, that's a legendary mix (Uh)
You always cutting corners on some secondary shit
And you blowing up my phone on some secretary shit (Damn)

You blow my phone and I don't know why
Don't need a reason, watch the smoke go by
I hear you calling but my calling is a calling away
So, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling away
I'm all alone and yes I don't know why
Don't need a reason, watch the smoke go by
I hear you calling but my calling is a calling away
So, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling away

Uh, uh
You the hottest, I knew you got it
The way you rock it, too erotic
Looking too exotic
You know your hips are hypnotic (Uh)
My chronic got me high
This mental hypnosis got me floating in the sky (Uh)
It's you and I, it's do or die
I swear we turn a grey day into a bluer sky
And I ain't talking 'bout a bustdown
Ain't talking 'bout a sidechick
Bitches wanna fuck now but I'm all about my sidekick
You the one I'm all about, the one I bother them all about

Drive me up the wall but I like it when you call
Sike, fuck bitches, I duck bitches
I'm just up in the cut with my blunt bitches
I'm in the snow, smoking snow
Got love for my girl but no love for your ho
Trees up, blows down, the blunt goes 'round
I'm looking for a fuck, G's up, clothes down

You blow my phone and I don't know why
Don't need a reason, watch the smoke go by
I hear you calling but my calling is a calling away
So, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling away
I'm all alone and yes I don't know why
Don't need a reason, watch the smoke go by
I hear you calling but my calling is a calling away
So, I'm falling, yeah, I'm falling away

Uh, look, yeah
I really just wanna up, I really just wanna toke up
I wake up and reminisce about how to get my cake up
Mother [?] started 'til my call end
How did you see me falling when I really just getting started
My heart was feeling departed until you walked up in closet
I let you win girl, go ahead and take a peek
Sit back, relax, all them ladies gonna freak
All they really just wanna see is you and me gone take the lead
But I never give a fuck
Smoking the kush just ain't enough
Really wanna get my money up
This is diamond [?]
Living this life with [?] lust
Phenomenal tracks so thank you Russ
