And tell me when I walk would you walk with me
And tell me when I talk would you follow me
Tell me when I walk would you walk with me
All around the world, around the world

And tell me when I walk would you walk with me
And tell me when I talk would you follow me
Tell me when I walk would you walk with me
All around the world, around the world

Started out behind the scenes like they ain't worried
But my life is going so well you think I'm playing for this Transforming, I was never Shia LaBeouf
People know me out in Belgium so I'm lighting up a Dutch
What's up France I see you see me, got some girls all up on my wee-wee
Give me head 'cause they see me wear a beanie
But a magazine a CZ
I'm the genie and Aladin
And Jasmine is my plan B
'Cause she can't read my caption
Check the subtitles
Fuck idols
I'm him
Wassup
Fuck what you think is hot
I'm the coolest motherfucker
I see the white rise on the WII smoking sushi and I'm feeling kinda backward s out of all the train of Gucci

And tell me when I walk would you walk with me
And tell me when I talk would you follow me
Tell me when I walk would you walk with me
All around the world, around the world

And tell me when I walk would you walk with me
And tell me when I talk would you follow me
Tell me when I walk would you walk with me
All around the world, around the world

Close your eyes 'cause you in it for another ride
They say the grass is always greener on the other side
But how you supposed to see that green when you're colorblind
Well one at a time I'll give you my mind and now my mentality grinds
Pray to God that I'm the fucking rellice 'cause rellice is the only method
You hear the honesty in my sentence
Another magazine writing up a chapter
My grain to the fuckin' masters you got no acrobatics
Middle finger mentality fool ain't about that doubting me
Motherfucker this real life we all feel the adversity (adversity)
With my pockets on dogulation addicted to inspiration all this money on weed and nothing on education
