Waves

Russ

Sometimes I get lonely and pass out
Maybe that's just how it has to be
Question everything 'bout my whole life
It's just waves and I know one day it won't be like this, no
Like this, no, like this, like this

Cause it's just waves and sometimes you're on the top, yeah
Other times, you rock bottom from the drop, yeah
Gotta just float, float, float, and have faith
It's just waves

Get too caught up in the bad stuff
Bitches lyin' on me, can't believe I haven't had love
But who gives a fuck? Man, at least I got my bag up
And I'm on a Jeep, four, four, four, four, four, four
You can ask her, ooh
My momma ridin' with me everywhere that I go
That's just how it goes
It's all good, then it's all bad, it's just life
It's just waves

Sometimes I get lonely and pass out
Maybe that's just how it has to be (Yeah, yeah)
Question everything 'bout my whole life
It's just waves and I know one day it won't be like this, no
Like this, no, like this, like this

Cause it's just waves and sometimes you're on the top, yeah
Other times, you rock bottom from the drop, yeah
Gotta just float, float, float, and have faith
It's just waves

Fragile ego and healthy mind
Wealthy but wasn't rich
Who's gonna tell me I'm trippin'? I fell behind
Shifted my attitude
A magnum for miracles is a heart made of gratitude
Made it a habit to check into the present, just to be fair to myself
Wherever you are, just be there
Beware, the waves will never stop
Sometimes you getting beat up by 'em, sometimes you on top
Just keep floatin'

I need you to be you for all of these people to see you
I plead you, to be who you need to
Just be in this moment, be free in this moment
You got it, you got it, you do
It's just waves

Sometimes I get lonely and pass out (I get lonely, lonely, yeah)
Maybe that's just how it has to be (Yeah, yeah)
Question everything 'bout my whole life (Whole life)
It's just waves and I know one day it won't be like this, no
Like this, no, like this, like this

Cause it's just waves and sometimes you're on the top, yeah
Other times, you rock bottom from the drop, yeah

Gotta just float, float, float, and have faith
It's just waves
