

Worried

Russ

I'm worried 'bout you, I cannot stop 'cause your love's somethi ng that I can't lose

And it's been like this for a long time, and I don't know what I'm gon' do

I'm worried 'bout you, I cannot stop 'cause your love's somethi ng that I can't lose

And it's been like this for a long time, and I don't know what I'm gon' do

I been handcuffed to your fears for years, wiped out but I stil l wipe your tears

You spiral and I spiral with you, it's not your fault I'm in th e cycle with you

How, damn, how can I break free without you thinkin' I abandone d you?

If I lived my own life, would you hate me? Would you hurt yours elf, am I crazy?

I send a text at 2 p.m. on a Friday, if I don't hear back by 4 I'm boutta floor it in the Porsche, fuck callin' anymore, I'm i n your driveway

Constantly frantic, obviously panic 'cause I'm just replaying y our words

You told me that you don't know why ya still here, so of course I'm assuming the worst

I'm worried 'bout you, I cannot stop 'cause your love's somethi ng that I can't lose

And it's been like this for a long time, and I don't know what I'm gon' do

I'm worried 'bout you, I cannot stop 'cause your love's somethi ng that I can't lose

And it's been like this for a long time, and I don't know what I'm gon' do

Now I don't wanna break your heart, but I think it's been broke for a minute

If I knew who did it, I would kill them, I would be your hero, I would be their villain

I think for a while I thought it was Dad, and maybe it was, but I'm thinking that

It goes further back, it's far in the past, I'm helpless, Mom, I've given all that I had

And it didn't work, so now what? I gotta find a solution

'Cause I don't want me and you ever at odds, but if that's what it takes for improvement, I guess I'm okay with it

The tears have been making this verse hard to read off my phone , so at this point I'm sayin' shit

I love you, I hate that I'm making this, you know why

I'm worried 'bout you, I cannot stop 'cause your love's somethin
that I can't lose
And it's been like this for a long time, and I don't know what
I'm gon' do
I'm worried 'bout you, I cannot stop 'cause your love's somethin
that I can't lose
And it's been like this for a long time, and I don't know what
I'm gon' do

I wish somebody woulda told me that you would be lonely
No matter what I do, it's not enough
I know that you're so fragile, if clouds cast a shadow
I'd travel to the moon, show you the sun
Reservation, separation, detonation
Obligation, manipulation, sedentation
