

Float

Russell Dickerson

Well it's Thursday and I'm thirsty for the weekend
Got a Yeti in the back packed down with drinks worth drinking
So take me to the redneck riviera
Show us those white thighs I don't care
A couple long necks deep in a pink inflatable chair

We gonna float
Like that ice cube melting right here in my Jack and Coke
Like a bobber on the water gonna ride this thing real slow
All I want to do is float

There ain't no way any trouble's getting to me
When I'm drifting with the red stripe just like that buoy
Just take me to the redneck riviera
Fake Ray Bans and tank top tans
A couple long necks deep in a pink inflatable chair

We gonna float
Like that ice cube melting right here in my Jack and Coke
Like a Flora-Bama beach on the Gulf of Mexico
We just gonna coast

We gonna float
Like a bobber on the water gonna ride this thing real slow
Just sippin' something fizzy, getting dizzy, rolling with the flow
All I want to do is float

I'm talking F-L-O-A-T
Ocean, a kitty pool ain't gotta get to deep
I'm talking F-L-O-A-T
Fill something with air and fill your cup with a drink
You know it's F-L-O-A-T
Get your booty in the water, yeah you know you wanna

We gonna float
Like that ice cube melting right here in my Jack and Coke
Like a Flora-Bama beach on the Gulf of Mexico
We just gonna coast

We gonna float
Like a bobber on the water gonna ride this thing real slow
Just sippin something fizzy getting dizzy rolling with the flow
All I want to do is
There ain't nothing to it just
All I want to do is float
Just float
