

Kill You Dead

Rusted Root

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead like a 44
I say who, who, who's it gonna be
When you're dead on the floor

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead like a 44
Oh tell me where, where
Is the way to the door

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along
The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along

Roll, roll, my lady love
She don't want my love to go astray
Well I say who, who, who's it gonna be
When you have games to play

I'm gettin' tired of this crazy bone
It's like suckin' blood from a stone
Well tell me where, where
Is the taste I used to know

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along
The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along, to get along

I hope a day never goes by
Without lookin' into those eyes
You're my love, my prayer

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead like a 44
I say who, who, who's it gonna be
When you're dead on the floor

I'm tangled to the left, I'm tangled to the right
Your clumsy paws keep crossing my line
I guess our love began
Somewhere along these power lines

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along
The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead to get along

The poundin' in my head alone
Could kill you dead, dead, dead

With a baby, with a
You're my clumsy dog baby, yeah
She want me, she
You're my clumsy dog
