

Asshole

Ruston Kelly

I blew over the line
He cuffed me and brought me in like a prize
I spit on the floor just to piss him off
He pulled out his taser 'cause he's got no cock
Fucking cops

I sat on the stone and I thought a lot
Two junkies were coked up and wouldn't stop talking
Lately I've been thinking I need to make a change
In how I do and what I say and behave

Taking everything for granted
The moment someone does something nice I take advantage
Easy breezy only when it pleases me, I've been told
I'm kind of an asshole
I'm kind of an asshole

My wife picked me up and she gripped the wheel
"How dare you, who are you?" and shit got real
She was crying, I was playing a game on my phone
Tryin' to think if there was any weed left at home

Taking everything for granted
The moment someone does something nice I take advantage
Easy breezy only when it pleases me, I've been told
I'm kind of an asshole
I'm kind of an asshole
