

Pale, Through the Window

Ruston Kelly

One, two, one, two, three

Spending most my days alone
Dreaming of connection
Pale, through the window
I see your ghost
But it's only my reflection

Romeo for Halloween
Got stoned at Stephen's party
A thousand Juliettes appear
When will they stop their haunting me?
Any moment now, I'll drown out the sound
Of the dream and hopeful connection

Pale, through the window
I see your ghost
But it's only my reflection

Just stay right here
I got you
Just stay right here
I got you

I don't know how I ended up
At the old bar off of Eastland
A stranger lost
Or caught in the flood
Looking for a reason

As if I'd find it on the front porch
Crying, lying now
"I've missed you"

Pale, through the window
I see your ghost
But it's only my projection

Just stay right here
I got you
Just stay right here
I got you

Spending most my days alone
Dreaming of connection
Pale, through the window
I see your ghost
But it's only my reflection
