

Wildflower

Ruston Kelly

Took a little bit
Saw the sun dyin' straight through her window
Swore to her I'll quit
But I can't find the time to break all these steps that follow me
Everywhere I go I know I'm defenseless
It's beating me down to the ground
That leaves me when love is down

All I wanna do is love you like a man
When I'm so tired
Everything is slipping from my hands
When all my ghosts get too heavy to hold
Wildflower love me brighter than the prettiest rose Woohh...

Dreaming all the rain
And all I see is her face peering through my window
Lighten up to play but I don't change fade to grey
Pulling out the rug from me
Everywhere I go I know I'm defenseless
It's beating me down to the ground
That leaves me when love is down

All I wanna do is love you like a man
When I'm so tired
Everything is slipping from my hands
When all my ghosts get too heavy to hold
When all my ghosts get too heavy to hold
Wildflower love me brighter than the prettiest rose

All I wanna do is love you like a man
When I'm so tired
Everything is slipping from my hands
When all my ghosts get too heavy to hold
When all my ghosts get too heavy to hold
When all my ghosts (get too heavy to hold)
Wildflower, you love me brighter than the prettiest rose
