

Die Fast

Ruth B.

A never ending story
We end up where we begin
Cause once you love somebody
You can never be just friends
And I think it's kinda funny
How we always end up running
Back to each other
Like we love to suffer

Somewhere along the way I get lonely
Sometimes I just need someone to hold me

We trick ourselves for the moment
But we know where this is going
Just a taste of instant pleasure
Desperate times and desperate measures
Picture perfect doesn't last
Want to leave you in the past
My love for you just won't die fast
My love for you just won't die fast

It's a losing game, we Always end up at the start
I try to stop it but I
Always miss you when it's dark
Cause now it's seven in the morning
And we spent seven hours pouring
Our hearts to each other
Like we love to suffer

Somewhere along the way I get lonely
Sometimes I just need someone to hold me

We trick ourselves for the moment
But we know where this is going
Just a taste of instant pleasure
Desperate times and desperate measures
Picture perfect doesn't last
Want to leave you in the past
My love for you just won't die fast
My love for you just won't die fast

I couldn't stop it if I tried
When you're around I feel most alive
Sure as the raindrops fall from the sky
My love for you won't die

I couldn't stop it if I tried
When you're around I feel most alive
Sure as a heart that beats in time
My love for you won't die

Somewhere along the way I got lonely
You are the one that I want to hold me

We trick ourselves for the moment
But we know where this is going

Just a taste of instant pleasure
Desperate times and desperate measures
Picture perfect doesn't last
Want to leave you in the past
My love for you just won't die fast
My love for you just won't die fast
My love for you just won't die fast