

Holiday

Ruth B.

Pretty crazy that you came out of nowhere and blew my mind
It's amazing when there's no one to compare so one of a kind
Just when I least expected, you appeared

Never really felt it deep down
Loveless love, you know it stung like lemons
But babe you sparkle like a sweet champagne
Your love, love, love, love is a holiday

I'm in deep going out of my mind, thinking bout you
Silver melodies and golden heartbeats shining brand new
Like I only see diamonds, rare and true

Never really felt it deep down
Loveless love, you know it stung like lemons
But babe you sparkle like a sweet champagne
Your love, love, love, love is a holiday

I know, I know I could really love you long time
Never been the one to want to stay a long time
I love loving you baby you know you're all mine

Never really felt it deep down
Loveless love, you know it stung like lemons
But babe you sparkle like a sweet champagne
Your love, love, love, love is a holiday

Your love
Babe you sparkle like a sweet champagne
Your love, love, love, love is a holiday
