

Complete Me

RuthAnne

This is the first day of forever
You'll be my last goodbye
But leave you I will never
You've everything needed
When life, it falls to pieces
You hold me down the deepest
Hmmmmm

And love ain't simple, no
Drives us crazy
But we workin' at it
Each and every day

So can I get a witness? (Mmmm)
This love is my commitment
Oooh, got me feelin'...

You complete me
You're everything that I was missing
When everybody's blind, yeah, you see me
Just when I thought no one was listening
You got it

You complete me
Yeah, and now my heart is full
You took my broken parts, oh how you made them whole
You call me out when I need it
We cool it down when it's heated
There's peace and war, and in between it
Yeah

And love ain't simple, no
Drives me crazy
But we working at it
For today and always

So can I get a witness? (Yeahhhhhhhh)
This love just hits me different
Oooh, it's got me feelin'...

You complete me
You're everything that I was missing
When everybody's blind, yeah, you see me
Just when I thought no one was listening
You got it

You complete me
Gave my life a purpose, a meaning
When I'm stuck in the middle, you meet me
This is giving forever feelings
We got it

You complete me
This love buried in my soul
Well, you hold it
You own it
You make me feel home

You're my missing pieces
You make me believe it
We're right here where we belong

You complete me
You're everything that I was missing
You got it

You complete me
Gave my life a purpose, a meaning
When I'm stuck in the middle, you meet me
This is giving forever feelings
We got it

You complete me
