

Unrequited

RuthAnne

Oh
I can't believe we came this close, you had me
To hold once
And we thought the stars finally shone in our favor
I wrote a list of all that I wanted
And you appeared
Your heart was open, I was invited
But it was love unrequited

Love, love, love
It was love unrequited

I wish that I could want you like you want me
I wish that I could want you like you want me
Love, love
Love, love

I met another and I fell hard
Broken man said I could mend his heart
And we thought the world finally was ours for the taking
I walked the surface and tried to go deeper
But he wouldn't jump
See I was the bait, and he wasn't biting

'Cause it was love unrequited
Love, love
Love, love
It was love unrequited

I wish that you could want me like I want you
I wish that you could want me like I want you

Love, love (Love, love, love, love, love, love)
Love, love
Oh

Someone to care, someone to share
To be loved, to be loved, oh, what a feeling to be loved
To be loved, to be loved, oh, what a feeling to be loved
But it was love unrequited

I wish that you could want me like I want you
I wish that you could want me like I want you
But it was love unrequited
I wish that I could want you like you want me
I wish that I could want you like you want me

Love, love, love, love, love

Your heart was open, I was invited
But it was love unrequited
