

Maybe I Got It Wrong

Ruti

So now tell me it's not deep
But I'm on the sea bed dragging my feet
Through affirmations and concrete
Not saying it's your fault I'm drowning
Just maybe next time you should think
Before you speak

Maybe I got it wrong
Maybe it's dead and gone
Maybe I'll call it what it is, just a bit of fun
I'm not the one
I'm not the one
I'll never be the one so let's just call it said and done

You look so sexy when you drive
Me around the neighbourhood at night
It's a shame we never see the daylight
But you can say I love with your eyes
And with words between you Marlboro lights
So tell me if you see the reason why

Maybe I got it wrong
Maybe it's dead and gone
Maybe I'll call it what it is, just a bit of fun
I'm not the one
I'm not the one
I'll never be the one so let's just call it said and done

Don't call my home
Don't call my phone
Don't ever call me love and not expect me not to fall
If I'm not the one
I'm not the one
No need to leave me hanging on just call it said and done
