

When It Rains

Ruti

Dreaming in the day again
Scared of everything you said
Now I've let you in
You've made a home under my skin

And every time I find you here
Its surprises me the same
Cause I didn't even know that I could make you want to stay
When I'm caught up in these walls
When you should have run away
Here you remain
You make me feel this kind of

Ooh...
(I can't explain it)
Ooh...

I won't take my eyes off you
Glistening like morning dew
It's beautiful here
I can barely hold back tears

It's an unfamiliar pull
It's an unfamiliar space
Cause I didn't even know that I could make you want to stay
When the heavens open up
And they fall I do the same
Cause here you remain
You make me feel this kind of

Ooh... (I can't explain it)
Ooh...
