

an honest song

Rxseboy

Yeah

Dancing with the stars under lilacs
Brighter in the day, but I love it when the sky's black
Life is like a movie, only watch it when it's IMAX
People drive me crazy and they waitin' until I crash
Take your spot, now you callin' me nefarious
In my race car, but do you really know who Aries is?
Weight upon my shoulders, and the team is what I'm carryin'
Ex's new man wants me dead, had to bury him
Ay, livin' in a cold-hearted soap opera
People only really care if you the most poppin'
Like I criminal I'm number one on the most wanted
Whippin' through the city in a Ghost and it's so hauntin', yeah
Honestly, I want more profit
Lotta money in my pocket so we store hoppin', yeah
I just copped the crib in Cali now the floor rockin'
It really shook me to the core, I can't afford problems, yeah
Hope that everything is workin' out
Switch it up a bit so I don't have a certain sound
Lately, I been messin' with the low fidelity
Hopin' they'll remember me in every single century
Won't let him get ahead but Powfu got astounding melodies
And Laeland on another level, music sounding heavenly, uh
We got the remedies, like mixin' every drug
We in the seventies, try to kill my high, you'll never rest in peace, yeah
Fake love getting commonplace, uh
Couple homies were the homies 'till they caught a case
Now I'm chillin' with a sweet girl, whippin' marmalade
Last one got away
Thank God, lotta praise, ay
Check out all the stars in the sly
Light reflectin' off the roses, beauty catchin' my eye
And I don't do it for the diamonds, I don't flex when they shine
But just know I'ma flex when it's time, yeah

Woo!

Yeah
