

BAD INFLUENCE

Rxseboy

I'ma regret this
I don't know why this always happens
I don't know, like I'm not working for anything right now, right t
Not a single thing seriously (Nope) nothing
And then this girl comes out of literally no where (Literally no o where)
And says I want to change your life
I'm like, "I can change my own"

Yeah, she's a bad influence with a dangerous mind
I feel the pressure tryna be somebody else for the night
She asked me what's the point of livin' if you scared for your life?
So if she jumpin', then I'm jumpin' from unbearable heights, ah
There's two sides to you, I'm flippin' the coin
You blocked the angel now the devils telling me I should join
I got some thoughts inside my head that I should say with my vo ice
Cause I don't wanna be the one you're taking into the void, yea h

Don't run my ways, ooh, don't run, don't run
Cause I feel the same, ooh-ooh-ooh, I feel the same
And don't call my name, ooh, don't call my name
Cause I'll never change for you

I'll never change, but if I did I know I'd prolly enjoy it
I got some friends that ain't my friends and they just call me annoying
Thought I could find somebody special, who my main thing?
I'm trying way too hard, but can you blame me?
Now I got you, you the troublesome type
I'm a coward, you're a star, I guess we're nothing alike
But maybe I'll forget the past and fall in love with the hype
We fell in love in a night, but won't be lovers for life, girl

Don't run my ways, ooh, don't run, don't run
Cause I feel the same, ooh-ooh-ooh, I feel the same
And don't call my name, ooh, don't call my name
Cause I'll never change for you (You)

I'll never change for you
But these feelings in my brain, in my brain they're all for you
I'll never change for you
But these feelings in my brain, in my brain they're all for you
Damn uh, I'll see you in a little bit
