

Bored Without You

Rxseboy

Yeah, yeah
Yes, I think you're cute
But not sure what you think of me, aye
And I think us two would like each other's company
Cause right now, I'm bored
I need some of your energy, aye
Lonely, too long
I need somebody next to me

Yeah
I need you next to me
I know we fight but I'll never be your enemy
Maybe we can be a thing eventually
No matter what l'mma always think it's meant to be
No matter what, I'mma always think you're beautiful
Late nights, stressing out, chewing on your cuticles
I promise you'll be alright
Gotta dim the hall lights
Try to get sleep but we're watching movies all night
Yeah, ballin' like I'm Rondo or Lonzo
If we get into it we won't ever skip the convo
If you wanna see me I'll be running to you, pronto
Think I'm good at singing even when I might be off note
Yeah
Honestly girl, I really think you're gorgeous
Try to hide the feeling but it's burning like the torches
Always checking on me when I'm far away touring
Anyways, back to Powfu with the chorus
Yes, I think you're cute
But not sure what you think of me, aye
And I think us two would like each other's company
Cause right now I'm bored
I need some of your energy, aye
Lonely, too long
I need somebody next to me
