

change our reflection

Rxseboy

Where's another puddle I can step in?
Hoping it'll change our reflection
I just wanna show you that we'll be fine
Standing in the rain, but the Sun still shine
Lots of other roads we can head down
But we'll never see 'em if our heads' down
I just wanna prove to you we're fine
You just gotta know it'll take more time (Godlow on the track)

I made you one song, I don't think that it's enough
I can see this thing that you've been going through is getting rough
And I can see the scars on top your hands, for me it's pretty tough
To the think about, honestly my knuckles had the same cuts
We go through the same stuff
Attention that they paid us
Until they feel the satisfaction
Broke just like a chain does
Hoping you don't leave because of me
I wanna change up, your state of mind
Help you shine forever, you'll be stainless
Life sucks, I get it
Feel a buzz, forget it
Flashbacks with edits
Until we roll the credits
We got a long life, but lately it don't feel amazing
Nowadays, we zoning out during most occasions
Keep it real, I hate the stupid shit
I don't wanna use you then confuse you 'till you're losing it
The positivity is cool, but really I'm not used to this
We both got our demons, luckily I brought a crucifix

Where's another puddle I can step in?
Hoping it'll change our reflection
I just wanna show you that we'll be fine
Standing in the rain, but the Sun still shine
Lots of other roads we can head down
But we'll never see 'em if our heads' down
I just wanna prove to you we're fine
You just gotta know it'll take more time

I can't fix everything, but I wanna try
Overthinking till our thoughts get compromised
Lotta lies, lotta show and tell, looking like it's great
Making up these stories with a smile stitched to our face
Nothing that we do is right
Lock ourselves inside a room
We just wanna slow it down
Let 'em all assume that we are okay
Even though we're not
Can't escape my fear
They just wanna help
And sadly I just wanna disappear

Where's another puddle I can step in?
Hoping it'll change our reflection
I just wanna show you that we'll be fine
Standing in the rain, but the Sun still shine

Lots of other roads we can head down
But we'll never see 'em if our heads' down
I just wanna prove to you we're fine
You just gotta know it'll take more time

Yeah, now you're here, so I'ma keep composure
Wanna make a path for you but that's a lot of boulders
Try to move 'em but they're stuck, I'ma go around em
Old memories, and I'm not happy that I found em
But I guess that I'll be moving on
Maybe I could talk about it in my newer songs
I don't care about the "I was right" and "You were wrong"
I just pray that when you heal, we can get along

Yeah, I know that life hurts
So let's flick off all that dirt
And keep walking on
Ayy, let's keep on walking on
I know that life hurts
So let's flick off all that dirt
And keep walking on
Yeah
