Rxseboy

Eyes closed, I ain't felt 'bout nothing in a long time
She knows how to hide and to put on a disguise
Put it on, I've been losing my mind
Just to search for some feeling, can't help this feeling inside

Yeah

Look at me, look at me, look at me now
Searching for something that's never been found
For the moment I'm feeling like you're still around
You gave me hope, now, I'm stuck in the now
Where did you go? lost in the crowd
Met on the town and you never came back
If that happened to me, then, how would you react?
I don't know 'cause you're gone now
And my heart has been locked in the compound
Got no feeling inside, like, I'm barred out
Something to mix to get out of this dark cloud
Every night I go pick up my car keys
Driving around, hoping I hear your heartbeat
If you're hiding from me, I'm impressed, damn
Go to sleep, hope I wake up a dead man
Dead man
