(Sinking deeper than before
Down to the ocean floor..)

I've been sinking on this shipwreck
Really wish I was a airhead
Stay afloat with no care in the world
Life jacket on my bare chest
Sadly, I can't be the guy that you dreamed of
I ain't the sailor, gotta go let the steam out
And I wish it was easy, drowning in sea 'cause my baby keep leaving
Mad as can be at the way that it happened
I'm manning the ship but don't call me no captain
'Cause I can't control anything going manic
Eyes looking blue, I end up like titanic
Throwing myself off a board in a panic
I'm walking the plank when I'm off with a brandy
Send off to sea never thought I would vanish
Now I'm on a trip to the core of the planet

Sinking deeper than before
Down to the ocean floor
Sinking deeper than before
Down to the ocean floor

I'll throw it all away
And never see your face again
If you ever wanna see me
Know you'll have to play pretend
I'll throw it all away
And never see your face again
If I come back from the dead
I will never make amends with you

Spend time on the rocks
When you leave town
Forgot to bring my book
But still got the ocean sounds
I'm tryna be there for you
I'm too hard on myself
What hurts me the most is you keep coming back
Feel like you like when I'm caught in your trap

Well darling, I'm too obsessed with you
I'm a psychopath 'cause I'm protecting you
What have you done for me besides nothing at all?
Wish I had the strength to leave
But I'll come when you'll call
I'll come when you'll call and leave my house on the hilltop
Infect me with lies and wasted time that we still got
Still shot of me and you, still keep it in my room
But where I lay when you're gone

I'll throw it all away
And never see your face again
If you ever wanna see me
Know you'll have to play pretend
I'll throw it all away

And never see your face again
If I come back from the dead
I will never make amends with you
