

Escape the simulation

Rxseboy

The world is breaking, escape the simulation
I used to have opinions but lately my head is vacant
I'm zoning out in public while scrolling through endless pages
Seeing everybody talk about drama and fabrication
We can't even have a conversation
Forget being subjective, they kill the opinionated
I said one negative thing and then everyone says I'm fake
But people worship them when they say the same about my creations
Anthony, shut up and stop complaining
You chose to be a performer, now get with the entertainment
Sounds great, I'll keep talking and getting paid till it's shocking besides my fate
Is the audience feeling gazed yet?

Maybe it's better if I don't say shit
Nah, deep breath, escape the simulation
Maybe it's better if I don't say shit
Deep breath, reality is waiting
Reality is waiting
Escape the simulation
