

FALSE POSITIVE

Rxseboy

Why you running off?
When you're the one at fault, now everything is lost
Guess our love was false positive, but what's causing it?
You're so obstinate, we're off on again
You hate all of this and say awful shit
It's so obvious, we're false positive for love

That you never tried for
In my eyes this was something I would probably die for Eyesores, how we look when we're rowdy
Fighting everyday, the past two weeks, but who's counting
I think that you're a fucking joke
You're popping off and taking pills, I hope you fucking choke
Cause you don't even wanna build, you wanna keep me broken
You're the reason why our love was always fucking hopeless

Why you running off?
When you're the one at fault, now everything is lost
Guess our love was false positive, but what's causing it?
You're so obstinate, we're off on again
You hate all of this and say awful shit
It's so obvious, we're false positive for love
