For The Girl Who Breaks My Heart

Rxseboy

Lot of thoughts, in my head, not a lot gonna change
Got a girl, in my bed, but she ain't feeling the same
If I give, her a second, she'll be running away
And if I give, her a day, someone taking my place

Lot of thoughts, in my head, not a lot gonna change
Got a girl, in my bed, but she ain't feeling the same
If I give, her a second, she'll be running away
And if I give, her a day, someone taking my place

Can you tell me things? You would tell nobody else
I would sell my soul, if that mean you would come and help
Try to get it back, our love is still in nature
Something like an artifact, we both agree with that

Feels like it's not real, excavation, I be looking for your heart still Where'd it go? Imma never know
Cause you always try to keep it from me
You say I got to find a piece for you to ever love me

But all I ever see are peace signs
You getting angry in the meantime
You telling me I could at least try
But I been trying for forever

I don't wanna be with you
Cause it don't feel like we're together
But this feeling holding tight
Like when you said to try your sweater on

When we were in your room
There's so much that we can do
Thought this love would give me life
But now I'm married to this tune

Lot of thoughts, in my head, not a lot gonna change
Got a girl, in my bed, but she ain't feeling the same
If I give, her a second, she'll be running away
And if I give, her a day, someone taking my place

Lot of thoughts, in my head, not a lot gonna change
Got a girl, in my bed, but she ain't feeling the same
If I give, her a second, she'll be running away
And if I give, her a day, someone taking my place

You're feeling good, I'm feeling so-so
Hooking up with all my homies, that's a low blow
I heard you're trying new things, like the co-co
[?] really got me going slo mo

Maybe we should separate
And hopefully one day
We'll finally go and set the stage
But don't return when everybody say

I got it made
Just forget the past

We can't go back
I'm using autosave, yeah
