

I am not the same person

Rxseboy

I gotta rap like the rent has been due
Won't sing a chorus, I made it shit proof
Why the fuck do they compare me to people I'm better than
Nappers are cricking my mood
All I've been hearing is Tony ain't poppin' no more
But I know they can't sit with the truth
Because even though I didn't drop for like half of a year
I'm still way fucking bigger than you

Laugh in my face while I'm changing the narrative
I buy that car for the woman I'm marrying
They try to make me the villain, I might have to kill him
My brother, that shit is embarrassing
Passive aggression, you said you were burying
Act like a king and I'm bombing your chariot
I'm really tired, but fuck it, I'll pop for a minute
Let's see them start drawing comparisons
Fuck all the money and fuck all the fame
I got enough, I can never complain
But when I see people start spreading that bullshit
My toes are on 10, I'm defending my name
I don't need guns, I ain't letting them rain
But bring up my fam and I'm letting it bang
If they wanna start up a riot
I'm feeling like X, the way I got revenge on my brain
Got my cuzz, let 'em dance, lot of diamonds on my hands
Lost everything I had, but I was trusting in the plans
I've been offered many zeros for the catalog
I don't do the scams, hope you understand
That's the reason why I'm independent
Fuck you and your vans

I gotta rap like the rent has been due
Won't sing a chorus, I made it shit proof
Why the fuck do they compare me to people I'm better than
Nappers are cricking my mood
All I've been hearing is Tony ain't poppin' no more
But I know they can't sit with the truth
Because even though I didn't drop for like half of a year
I'm still way fucking bigger than you
