

I Hate Moving On

Rxseboy

It's about time I was moving on
See what's next for me
It's about time I was moving on
While they hope for you

Can you hold my hand when I can't breathe
Everybody wanna talk when I can't speak
Wanna be everything that I can't be
Every feeling coming at me like a stampede

Gotta slow down
I'mma move on Getting faded
I am too gone

They are too quick
To say I'm useless
I can't disprove it
I'm too confusing

They mess up, but it's not my fault
But I'll take that blame
And I'll make that call
If I feel that pain
Gotta brace myself
Whenever I'm the problem, I gotta face myself

God damn
Everything getting too difficult
Stuck in my mind and I'm miserable
I know moving on is so pivotal like

It's about time I was moving on
See what's next for me
It's about time I was moving on
While they hope for you

Take it back
Can't relax
I was sad for like 80 tracks

No one's impressed
I can't take the stress
If I break the pen
I won't write again

Yeah I'm done
It's over with
I got sober quick
And then rolled a spliff

I jumped off a cliff
With no parachute
In the next life
I'll be very cool

Everybody gon' fuck with me

Get a big house, yeah that's luxury
Got a good girl to keep company
Nothing holding me down underneath

In reality
I'm too sad to speak
Every bad thing'll come back to me
In reality
There's no actually's
Like what the fuck has been happening

It's about time I was moving on
See what's next for me
It's about time I was moving on
While they hope for you
