

if we fight

Rxseboy

I don't wanna fight with you
Nah, I just wanna live life with you
Yeah, I promise I don't wanna fight with you
I just wanna live life with you

Broken glass, bad memories temptations
Thinking 'bout the past and then remember the ends waiting
His friends Fakin'
Mommas freaking out cos he's binge drinking
Asked if he was feeling it
But Told em you still thinking

No way, he seen you posting with another dude
Like who the hell is he, now who the hell are you
He never cared this much, but you an evil witch
Now he's got problems that he's dealing with

You made him unstable
And now we cuts corners
You taught him how to do it
Thinking he'll stay near the bottom but he's been movin'
Said you healing but he know your heart has been bruising

Yeah

Ok what happened to eternity
Feeling stick to murdering
Should've ran away but never felt the sense of urgency
It's an emergency, yeah
He need to talk to you, uh
And that's what's wrong with you but

Look

I don't wanna fight with you
I told you 20 times, I just wanna live life with you
Yeah, I promise I don't wanna fight with you
Like I said, I just wanna live life with you

Took a visit to the park where they first kissed
The hurt kid, turned his life around he was worthless
But now, look, he's been fighting demons and devils
You never wanted to help him, he popped the pills
And you let him, then he would calm down

It only last for an hour
Then he'd be drained of his power
Became insane off the powder
That was the end of him
He started mixing for the full effect
And sent the text that you would not forget
